Make Way for Books Family Education and Literacy Programs: The majority of young children ages birth to five in Arizona do not have access to high-quality early education. Make Way for Books provides access to high-quality, bilingual (English/Spanish) early literacy education through programs that meet families with young children in high-need locations including community sites and neighborhood elementary schools as well as online. All programs in this strategy work to increase children's and families' access to books. Through Family Education and Literacy programs, children experience shared reading and literacy activities that help to build their critical emergent literacy and language skills as well as social-emotional skills and positive approaches to reading. Through a two-generation approach, children and parents learn together. (Continued on Schedule O)
